Condé Nast Johansens Luxury Hotels & Spas Guide recognizes Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa as an 'Environmentally Friendly Hotel'

New York, February 2009 -- Condé Nast Johansens, the international luxury hotel guide publisher, recently announced their decision to recognize 'Environmentally Friendly hotels' in their Recommended Hotels, Inns, Resorts & Spas - The Americas, Atlantic, Caribbean & Pacific. Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa now proudly displays the symbol on www.brentwoodbaylodge.com

"We are responding to an ever growing market looking to support environmentally friendly hotels," said Lesley O'Malley-Keyes, Condé Nast Johansens Vice President and Publishing Director for the Americas. "Our inspection visits to hotels throughout the Americas in 2009 will include ascertaining the environmentally friendly practices and policies in place at each property. Recommendations are selected for their individual charm, character and superior service, and only properties that meet the exacting requirements are included in the Guide. Condé Nast Johansens inspects each recommendation annually to ensure that it maintains high standards.

Dan Behune, President of Brentwood Bay Lodge and Spa said, "We are proud of our team's commitment to the environment, from our initial architectural design to our daily operations we strive to embrace triple bottom line sustainability with everything we do. We are extremely pleased to be recognized by Condé Nast Johansens."

Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa, Victoria's only five star oceanfront resort, has recently been voted number one in BC by Expedia.ca Insiders' Select. The culinary and spa destination has 33 luxuriously appointed OceanSuites, award winning wine cellar, SeaGrille & Pub, spa with a heated outdoor pool and hot tub, executive conference facilities and Marina & Eco-Adventure Centre.

Set on a pristine inlet at the southern tip of Vancouver Island, Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa is close to the beautiful City of Victoria with recreational activities, heritage attractions, shopping, wineries and The Butchart Gardens. Fifteen minutes from Victoria International Airport and BC Ferries terminal, the resort has convenient access by land, air and sea.
