Small Luxury Hotels of the World Awards Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa Prestigious Membership

Western Canada's Newest Luxury Oceanfront Resort Becomes One of Only Three in Canada to Receive This Designation

[VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA] Small Luxury Hotels of the World announces it has awarded Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa with a membership to its prestigious international lodgings association. The magnificent new oceanfront resort opening this spring on Vancouver Island in British Columbia becomes only the third property in Canada to be selected.

The Small Luxury Hotels of the World is an exclusive collection of more than 300 of the world's finest independently owned luxury hotels. The criteria for acceptance are stringent. Small Luxury Hotels' member properties are regarded for their tradition of providing guests with exceptional, personal service and a supreme level of comfort and pleasure.

"We are honored to have been accepted into this prestigious group of award-winning luxury hotels," says Dan Behune, President of Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa. "We look forward to providing guests with the superior level of service visitors expect from all members of Small Luxury Hotels."

"An intimate and luxurious oceanfront resort on Canada's West Coast, Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa will offer discerning travelers a sophisticated and personalized experience in this beautiful corner of the world," says Lee Ann Gamble, Regional Director of Business Development for Small Luxury Hotels of the World. "We are pleased to add Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa to our global network of luxury hotels."

Brentwood Bay Lodge & Spa features 33 luxuriously appointed OceanSuites with king beds, spa-like bathrooms with jetted tubs, fireside seating areas, handcrafted furnishings, oceanview patios or balconies, DVD entertainment systems, complimentary high-speed Wi-Fi Internet access and unlimited long distance calling throughout North America. Every stay includes a three course gourmet breakfast.

The resort presents outstanding Vancouver Island cuisine and fine wines at the Arbutus Grille & Wine Bar, as well as casual dining at the Marine Pub. It includes the Spa-Essence of Life with outdoor heated pool and hot tub, Fine Art Gallery, Fine Wine & Spirits Shop, Executive Conference Facilities and Marina & Eco-Adventure Centre. This luxury oceanfront resort is set on a pristine inlet in the heart of wine country with water shuttle service to The Butchart Gardens. It is conveniently located close to the Victoria International Airport and the BC Ferries terminal, and is just minutes from the city of Victoria.
